

The Grandparents Raising Grandchildren Legal Research Project invites you to a Discussion Forum

This invitation is to those who work in relation to Grandparents needing advocacy, information, resources, and/or assistance while raising their grandchildren. Discussion will focus on specific legal issues and complexities Grandparents are facing

Monday, June 23rd, 2008 - 9:15 am to 12:00 pm
University of Victoria Campus - Fraser Building
Law Faculty Student Lounge (Refreshments Provided)
UVIC Campus Map Directions & Pay Parking Locations

Why attend?

- Meet with project team members and other 'stakeholders' who have contact with and knowledge of Grandparents Raising Grandchildren
- Share your perspective and the stories you are hearing. You have a wealth of experience to guide our research
- Learn about the research project and what has been discovered to date from our contacts with more than 200 Grandparents
- Tell us the barriers you see and your recommendations for improving legislation, policies and resources for grandparents in the future.

To register: Call 250 384 8042 or E-mail: parent-support@shaw.ca

Project Info: http://www.parentsupportbc.ca/grg\_legal.html

Spaces are limited: our goal is to meet with a broad representation of organizations, agencies and services for this discussion.

Funding for this research is provided by The Law Foundation of BC and the Government of British Columbia (MCFD, MEIA, Ministry of Education)